The panels of the Arlington police cars resemble the panel before the pilot of a plane. There are many control buttons. Chief Skoog with mike in his right hand get station WBNQ on the air at any moment. "It is a great thing," says Mrs. Skoog. "If he is late for dinner I just call the station and ask the operator to find out why."

Arlington police radio to also serve Palatine

The financial success of Palatine police benefit show last week has furnished sufficient funds to pay for the installation of radio receiving equipment in the Palatine police car and police station and the service for one year by the Arlington Hts. police radio station WBNQ. Residents of Palatine will be able to get the same police radio service as the people of Arlington Hts., both through the Arlington station equipment.

Arlington Heights has the distinction of being the first Cook county municipality to install F. M. Motorola equipment. The effectiveness of the installation is being proven daily. Officers on duty in the two police cars can get in immediate communication with either the station or each other.

THE EQUIPMENT is even ahead of that used by the office of Cook county sheriff, which has two years to make the change over. Lake county sheriff, Lake Forest, Elgin, Lombard and the state police have equipment similar to Arlington. The mobile range of the mobile units of 7 to 10 watts is supposedly five to ten miles, but recent tests show excellent results as far as 15 to 20 miles. The station range with a 60-watt output, reaches 50 miles or more.

For the benefit of residents of Palatine, an extension of present Palatine police phone 2, will be placed in the Arlington Heights police station. The phone will ring at both places. In case of an emergency or important message the call will go out over the air to the Palatine police car. Palatine residents will be able to get in touch with their own police at any time during the 24 hours that the Palatine police car is in service.

OPERATORS OF the radio station have a lot of responsibility. They are licensed and are required to keep a record of every call going over the air. Officer in police car must report to station WBNQ any time that they are leaving their car. A time signal is sent to all cars on the 45 minutes after the hour 24 times daily.

ALL AUTOISTS MUST take examination for drivers license renewal. The state of Illinois, judging from the number of auto accidents is not at all certain that many holders of driver's licenses know how to drive. Therefore examination must be taken by all autoists before a new driver's license will be issued.

All drivers' licenses expire May 1. However, they will be automatically extended until the driver's first birthday that occurs after May 1. Then an examination must be taken to acquire a new license. Evanston is the place of examination for this area.

100-bed hospital possible for N. W. area

State and federal funds available for project

A 100-bed hospital for the northwest area, including the villages of Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, Morton Grove, Northfield, Golf and Northbrook and the rural area in the townships of Wheeling and Northfield is possible. Federal and state funds are available for a large part of the construction costs, which is estimated to be about a half million dollars.

The size and extent of the hospital is fixed by the Federal requirements of four beds to a thousand inhabitants in the territory to be served. There are about 25,000 people in the area outlined above, which would mean a hospital with a 100 bed capacity.

PLANS FOR A hospital had their start several months ago when a group of physicians and other health-minded persons held an initial meeting in Glenview. Since that time other meetings have been held in Mt. Prospect, Des Plaines and Morton Grove. These meetings were merely get-togethers of small groups to learn what the medical men of their respective communities thought about the idea.

At the meeting held in the Mt. Prospect Lions den two months ago, every physician present was in agreement on the need of a hospital if hospital facilities are to be available to their patients. "Present hospitals are so crowded they require a waiting list, but unfortunately, disease has no waiting list," said a local physician.

NEW IMPETUS to the plan has been given by the group of hospital minded people of Chicago's northwest side who planned a large hospital in the Norwood Park area. It was their intention to include all of north-west Cook county in a hospital authority.

It is the opinion of many local people that a well equipped smaller hospital for the north area of the county is to be preferred to the Chicago planned large institution in Norwood Park. These local people have held a number of conferences with members of the state department of health. It is on their recommendation that the plans are being made for a hospital serving an area bloc of 25,000 inhabitants.

ASSURANCES have been given that the Wheeling-Northfield-seven village area will be set aside by the state as a general hospital area and encroachments by other proposed hospitals will be automatically prevented.

A hospital in Arlington Hts. was one of the suggestions considered by the war memorial committee of that town several months ago. The plan was dropped because of its cost. With a number of villages cooperating, and with the aid of state and federal money available for the purpose, the northwest area can have its own hospital.

A MEETING will be held at the Glenview village hall Wednesday, February 18, when it is expected that hospital plans will take definite shape and ways will be found to present the matter to the general public.

'House to house' drive for scout funds next week

As this paper goes to press a conference is being held at the village hall by the Arlington Heights village board and business men. This is the first of a series of community studies pointing toward the physical renovation of the Arlington Hts. business district to effect a more modern standard of utility, safety and appearance.

Plans and specifications for the modernization and expansion of present ornamental lights will be presented at this meeting under the direction of qualified engineers.

Harry Larson involved in auto accident

Sunday night the car being driven by Harry Larson, 7 S. Vail, Arlington Heights, collided with a car being driven by Miss Mamie Herron of Chicago.

Miss Herron, accompanied by Miss Harriet Maack, also of Chicago, was driving east on the Northwest highway about one mile west of Central road when her car was hit in the rear by Mr. Larson, who was accompanied by Mrs. Charlotte Larson. Larson said he did not see the Herron car.

The Larsons were cut about the face and Miss Herron and Miss Maack sustained bruises. They were all treated in Mount Prospect by Dr. Wolfarth.

Mt. Prospect to oppose business district at north edge of village

The village of Mt. Prospect will be represented at a public hearing February 25 at 7 p. m., of the zoning board of appeals at the Arlington Heights village hall, when a hearing will be held on a petition for rezoning of three acres between Elmhurst and Rand road, immediately south of Sobie's cafe.

The petitioner asks a change from residential to business, on the assumption that it might be used as a trailer camp or for a tavern, the Mt. Prospect board will oppose the petition.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS ASSIST IN MARCH OF DIMES

The Arlington Heights Camp Fire girls spent Saturday at the RKO Grand theater in Chicago, where they were in charge of the March of Dimes booth that is set up in the theater lobby.

Sieburg Drug store sold

Sieburg Drug store which is one of the pioneer business houses in Arlington Heights has been sold. The new proprietors are J. T. Keefe of Highland Park and J. P. Tinaglia Jr., of Chicago. Possession will probably be given Monday.

Walter Sieburg purchased the drug store from L. W. Hanneman April 8, 1916. The following day, Wm. Lussman entered the employ of his cousin and in 1929 a partnership was formed between the two of them. Since the illness of Mr. Sieburg, Mr. Lussman has had complete charge of the store.

It is no easy job handling such a store and for some time Mr. Lussman had been thinking about retiring. He says, "I want to enjoy some recreation while I am still able. The confining work of a drug store is not conducive to good health despite the medicines that are on its shelves."

'Aunt Fanny' on Radio Show

Three mornings weekly at 8 a. m. a lavishly bustling woman, dressed in the floor-sweeping garb of the gaslight era, chatters with gossip authority about an assortment of hometown acquaintances. She is Aunt Fanny, the sharp-witted old maid of ABC's Breakfast club, who will appear on the "Parade of Stars" show sponsored by the Arlington Heights Woman's club for its new fund-raising drive for cancer control.

Honor roll pins given to juniors and seniors

The list of students of Arlington Heights high school whose scholastic attainments won for them a place on the honor rolls, were announced this week. Unusual interest in the honor roll list is being shown this year. Under the new plan of awards, there appears to be more "winners." A place on the coveted list is just as hard to win as in other years, but it is now so classified that a greater number of boys and girls were able to "make" the list.

SEVEN BOYS AND EIGHT GIRLS of the senior class have been selected for membership in the national honor society. As required by that national organization, selection must come from among the upper ten per cent of the senior class. They are graded on the point system, of which general school activities and citizenship are considered as well as scholarship.

The students named to the honor society are: Albert Cahill, Betty Linneman, Albert Claus, Anne Lyman, Dorothy Cosman, Vernon Rascher, Robert Daggett, Arthur Slet, John Fellingham, Edwin Siskhart, Marian Goebbert, Ronald Wiegand, Joy Hermsdorf, Dolores Wiegand, Andrea Kennedy, Dolores Wiegand.

HONOR PINS are being introduced into Arlington Heights high school this year for the first time. Twenty members of the senior class who have had a "B" average for seven semesters which means for their entire high school work are entitled to wear the gold pin with a red background on which there is a gold "A". Those who have the right to wear this pin are:

Cahill, Joan, Linnemann, Betty, Claus, Albert, Lyman, Anne, Fellingham, John, Slet, Arthur, Goebbert, Marian, Rascher, Vernon, Hermsdorf, Joy, Wiegand, Dolores, Leach, William, Schlemmer, Doris, Lasley, William, Schlemmer, Doris, Leach, William, Schlemmer, Doris.

JUNIORS as well as seniors have the opportunity to wear a similar pin with a white background which is given for those who made a "B" average for four semesters. Twenty-four juniors and eighteen seniors are in this class. They are:

SEMIESTER HONOR roll is divided into two classes. Students who have 14 points to their credit are listed in the senior list; those with 12 points in the junior list. In both cases, five points are given for an "A", three for a "B" grade and 1 for a "C." A grade below a "C"

Ticket sale limited to capacity of gymnasium

Seven radio headliners from the Chicagoland listening area already have "promised" the Arlington Heights Woman's club to aid in publicizing the club's new fund drive for cancer research.

The radio stars will present their talents to the "City of Good Neighbors" and surrounding area in a "Parade of Stars" show on Friday, March 12, at the Arlington Heights township high school auditorium.

Proceeds from the radio review sponsored by the local unit will be donated to agencies engaged in research activities and studying the control of cancer, public killer No. 2 after heart disease.

"WE FEEL THAT our community will be more than willing to contribute to such a worthy cause," Mrs. Carl H. Ewert, 327 S. Mitchell, Arlington Hts., president of the local group said of the club's project.

"The radio stars we have approached for the benefit performance were very eager to participate in our show," Mrs. R. M. Conrad, S. State road, Arlington Heights, who is supervising the club's project, stated.

"When they learned that the purpose of our program was to raise money to help fight cancer, a disease which is expected to cause the death of 17 million persons this year, they all asserted that they 'wanted to get into the act'—for free."

ONE OF the radio stars who has volunteered to donate his talents to the radio program is Paul Gibson, radio commentator and philosopher on WBBM.

George Watson, announcer and ad-lib artist on WBBM, will be master of ceremonies for the Arlington Heights show. Among the programs Watson has handled are "Scattergood Baines," "Ma Perkins," "First Nighter," "Grand Hotel," and more recently, "Caught in the Act."

OTHER personalities who will appear are Ed Prentiss, narrator on "This is the Story," on the Mutual broadcasting system; the King's Jesters, a singing trio formerly with Paul Whiteman's band; Louise King and Billy Leach, singers on WBBM on the Columbia network; "Bouquet for You," afternoon program and Fran Allison, "Aunt Fanny," the old-maid of ABC's Breakfast club.

"We hope to add more stars to our list of entertainers by next week," Mrs. Paul F. Koenig, 908 N. Dunton ave., Arlington Hts., who has contacted the radio personalities for the benefit show, stated.

Mrs. Charles Heiss, 911 N. Dunton ave., Arlington Heights, chairman of the publicity committee, reported that 1,500 tickets have been printed, "and we've already sold 500 before all the final plans for the show have been made."

TICKETS for the radio benefit performance will cost $1.20 for adults and 90 cents for students, tax included. They may be purchased at the Arlington Heights Bootery, Lohr's Drug store, Jack's Swirl shop and Prospect Heights Hardware.

Other business houses where tickets can be purchased will be announced at a later time.

While 270,000 boys were killed on battlefields in World War II, 500,000 people were dying at home because of cancer. To date, 300,000 advanced stages of cancer are reported and this disease, No. 2 killer in the United States, causes 12 percent of all deaths among our population.

Tony Pfundstein and family move to Arizona

After living 28 years in Arlington Heights, Tony Pfundstein, Sr. and his family left Monday to make their new home in Tucson, Ariz.

Tony, well known as a barber at Neuman's barber shop, wishes to say so long to all his friends and that he'll be back to visit them every chance he gets.

The Pfundsteins bought their own ton and a half truck in which to move their furniture west. Both Tony and his son, Anton, Jr., will take turns driving the truck and family car to their destination.

bars the student from being listed, no matter how many points he attains. The semester honor roll appears on page seven.

"SPIRIT"
 The Golden Text was:
 "Ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you" (Rom. 8:9).
 Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon, the following were from the Bible:
 "O Lord, thou hast searched me and known me... Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence? If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there; if I make my bed in hell, behold thou art there. If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me" (Ps. 139: 1, 7-10).
 The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:
 "Spirit being God, there is but one Spirit, for there can be but one infinite and therefore one God... Spirit, God, has created all in and of Himself. Spirit never created matter. There is nothing in Spirit out of which matter could be made, for, as the Bible declares, without the Logos, the Aeon or Word of God, 'was not anything made that was made.' Spirit is the only substance, the invisible and indivisible infinite God... Nothing but Spirit, Soul, can evolve Life, for Spirit is more than all else" (pp. 334, 335).

SUES FOR $21,500

S. J. Wojlanski, J. W. Coakely and C. D. Rogers, doing business as Auto Trailer Painters, have sued E. J. Rozhn in Circuit court for $21,500 as a result of an automobile accident at Rte. 62 and R. 53 near Arlington Heights July 28. They charge that Rozhn caused his car to collide with the firm's car, driven by Stanley at the intersection of the two roads. Stanley asks $20,000 for injuries and Coakely and Rogers, owners of the car, ask $1,500 additional for damage to it.

Heights woman gets 'thrill of lifetime' on radio call

"I feel like a big balloon that had a pin stuck in it," said Mrs. Mark Cleaver, 633 Burton place, Arlington Heights, after being called Saturday night from Hollywood, Calif., to identify the Walking Man.

Many residents in Arlington Heights, including the society editor, got just as big a thrill as Mrs. Cleaver when Ralph Edwards of the Truth or Consequence program said he was placing the next call to Arlington Heights, Ill. Hollywood put the call through to Mrs. Cleaver about a half hour before Ralph Edwards talked to her over the air.

HER ANSWER, Richard Dix, was arrived at from the first part of the clues, which go like this, "Ding, bong, bell, it is ten and only one can tell. Master of the metropolis fits my name quite well." Dix is ten in French, and she got the first name Richard from Dick Whittington, thrice Lord Mayor of London. It wasn't right, but it was a good try.

Mrs. Cleaver said she sent in eight entries, all at the same time, with just a small silver contribution in each, so she doesn't know which 25 words won the honor of being third best letter of that week.

"AFTER I hung up," said Mrs. Cleaver, "people from all over the United States, including Delaware, Idaho and Missouri, called me to ask what I had written, or how much I had contributed to the American Heart Association. One man even drove out here from Chicago Sunday to find out this information. It was just a stab in the dark, but the thrill of being called is something to last me a life time."

As consolation for the thousands of dollars in prizes she missed, Mrs. Cleaver will receive a 42 piece set of sterling silver from the sponsors of Truth or Consequence.

Gcd of the Atom film at Methodist church Monday

A new approach to the atom bomb problem will be presented when the sound-color film "God of the Atom" is shown at 8:00 p.m., Monday, February 16, at the First Methodist church, N. Dunton at St. James st., Arlington Heights, according to the Rev. Milo J. Vondracek, pastor of the church.

The picture has been produced by Dr. Irwin A. Moon, director of Moody Institute of Science in Los Angeles, and noted originator of "Sermons from Science." In the film, actual shots of the Nagasaki and Bikini explosions are featured, as well as the only full-colored moving pictures ever taken of the giant 184-inch cyclotron at the University of California. Since this exclusive sequence was filmed, concrete walls have been built around the cyclotron, and the interior has been rendered dangerously radioactive.

In his role as narrator of "God of the Atom," Dr. Moon, declares, "Our trouble in the world has never been due to the fact that we've had swords, or guns, or gunpowder, or tanks, or airplanes, or even atomic bombs. Take all these things from the world and men will beat each other to death with their bare fists!" The problem is not what man has, but what man is, he says.

Handicraft hints given girl scout leaders at area 'idea exchange'

Girl scout troop leaders traded handicraft ideas and suggestions at a meeting at the Arlington Heights fieldhouse Monday, February 9. Discussing several of the exhibits are, left to right, Mrs. Donald Bennett, Barrington, Intermediate troop No. 1; Mrs. Selwyn Savage, Barrington, Brownie troop No. 7; Mrs. Charles Rehfeldt, 933 Patton ave., Arlington Heights, Inter-

An "idea exchange" featuring the trading of handicraft ideas between leaders of girl scout troops was held Monday, February 9, at the Arlington Heights fieldhouse. Approximately 65 troop leaders attended the session from 10

a. m. to 3 p. m. to learn how to make the various suggested handicraft objects and to see actual demonstrations and exhibits of handicraft work done by girl scout troops.

THE AFFAIR was sponsored mediate troop No. 3; Mrs. B. H. Bohrer, Prospect Heights, Intermediate troop No. 1; Mrs. R. D. Hinchcliff, 606 S. Dunton ave., Arlington Heights, Intermediate troop No. 8; Mrs. T. Thornton, Mt. by girl scout troop leaders from Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect and Barrington, according to Mrs. Theodore Archibald, training day chairman. Scout leaders from Prospect Heights and Palatine also were invited to attend the meeting.

Mrs. James C. Dow, Barrington, demonstrated how modeling in candle wax could result in the creation of interesting figurines. She also demonstrated finger painting and the tying and dyeing of cloth to make colorful head scarves and ballerina skirts.

ANOTHER VOLUNTEER talk and "show how" demonstration was given by Mrs. Sheridan Winter, 108 Wheeling road, Prospect Heights, who told troop leaders how their girls could make red and white carnation corsages for their mothers by learning to cut and wire them "like the florist does."

Two Arlington Heights troop leaders, Mrs. Quentin Ford, 621 N. State road, and Mrs. Fredric Holderman, 708 N. Evergreen ave., told the audience the results of their experiments with modeling clay. She explained that members of girl scout troops could use a "free hand" in the designs they chose to mold and bake, or they could adhere to making more conventional objects like ash trays or vases.

Mrs. Vernon Sturm, 428 Banbury road, Arlington Heights, had a display of beads made from sealing wax and shaped into buttons and place cards.

Another exhibit by Mrs. E. E. Hargrave, Barrington, featured felt material from which girl scouts could make coin purses and mittens.

FINAL SPEAKER of the day was Mrs. Herman Gieseke, Jr., 208 S. Wille, Mt. Prospect, who demonstrated leather tooling and dyeing and suggested that girl scouts could create attractive belts and wallets from the leather.

At the noon recess the attending troop leaders had a "nose-bag lunch," each one bringing her own food. Mrs. Jean Heffner, 511 Beverly Lane and Mrs. Edward Schumacher, 1208 Watling road, both of Arlington Hts., supervised the serving of coffee.

Mrs. Alva Meyers, 805 N. Dunton, president of the Arlington Heights girl scout council, introduced the speakers, and explained that a similar convention was being planned for the fall.

Former employee seeks word of employer after 40 years

An old time resident, Edward Griswold, sought contact with the Arlington of yesteryear this week, when he, writing from Hawthorne, Calif., asked the Chamber of Commerce for information as to the whereabouts of Fred and Arthur Scharringhausen.

Back in 1905 Mr. Griswold worked for the Scharringhausens, who at that time lived at Schnell's corner, just south of Arlington Heights.

The Scharringhausens have been notified and Mr. Griswold will probably be hearing from them in the near future. It's been over 40 years since Mr. Griswold left this vicinity and the editor wonders if he would recognize it if he were to come back here today.

Elect officers for Cub pack

New officers were elected to head the pack committee at the meeting of the den dads of Arlington Heights Cub Pack 232 held Friday evening, February 6, at the North school.

The election resulted in the following selections: chairman, George LaRoi, 748 S. Bristol Lane; cubmaster, Martin W. Freeman, 833 N. Vail ave.; treasurer, Louis Ray, 420 Lincoln Lane; secretary, Alvin Robertson, 624 N. Highland ave.

THE DEN DADS were told that Mr. LaRoi had been keeping his scouting talents secret and over his protests it was revealed that he became an Eagle scout, the highest rank in scouting, when only thirteen years old.

Mr. Freeman, formerly scoutmaster of Troop 7, is no stranger to cubbing as he was formerly assistant cubmaster of Pack 232.

Plans were made at the meeting for the annual father and son banquet to be held at the Methodist church Thursday evening, February 19, at 7 o'clock.

The den dads also discussed plans for holding future pack meetings at the South school and the secretary was instructed to obtain permission for such meetings from the board of education.

Former Arlington man catches 'whopper' at Crystal Lake

A 21 pound pike, measuring 41 inches long, was caught at Crystal Lake, Ill. February 1 by Al Reinert, former resident of Arlington Heights.

Al, who is now known as the best ice fisherman in Crystal Lake, used a large frozen herring for bait, a heavy line and a large Chinese hook. His catch is the largest fish to be caught at Crystal Lake in many years, though several 15 pound pike have been caught by other ice fishermen this past winter.

The pike being caught are believed to have been brought to Crystal Lake about 10 or 12 years ago from the state fish hatchery at Spring Grove.

Mr. Reinert was born and raised in Arlington Heights, living here more than 25 years. He moved to Crystal Lake in 1939.

The big pike is now on display at the Crystal Lake A&P store, where Mr. Reinert is employed as a butcher.

Oehler funeral homes win AMA awards

Oehler Funeral Home, Lee and Perry sts., Des Plaines, and Lautenberg and Oehler, 111 N. Campbell st., Arlington Heights, have again been selected by the Affiliated Morticians of America as its approved funeral homes in the Des Plaines-Arlington Heights area, David H. De Less, A. M. A. president, announced today.

To rate A. M. A. approval, a funeral home must practice advanced mortuary science, use a standard pricing system and employ modern public relations procedures.

De Less said the A. M. A. field investigator who surveyed the Oehler homes reported that they had fulfilled these requirements for the second consecutive year. He said the homes' awards of merit were being renewed because the establishments showed "continuous efforts in the public interest and an outstanding service."

'Love lotteries' were start of modern valentines

St. Valentine's Day hasn't always been a whimsical holiday for exchanging light-hearted greetings with friends and sweethearts.

For fourteen centuries, the church fought against the "pagan practices" which marked the Lover's Festival on February 14. Then, for 200 years more, Valentine's Day was a very, very serious occasion calling for weeks of painstaking preparations.

Only during the past generation has the "modern" Valentine developed—gay, whimsical, and cleverly designed, with special sentiments appropriate for brothers and sisters, parents, and friends—as well as the more familiar lacy Valentines for sweethearts.

TRADITION holds that Valentine's Day derived its name from a young Roman priest beheaded February 14, 270 A. D., for refusing to renounce Christianity. In prison he composed a farewell message to his jailer's blind daughter, signing it "From your Valentine."

Actually, Romans had been celebrating that date for years as the Feast of Lupercalia, dedicated to the pastoral god Lupercus and to the Goddess of Love, Juno. The birds of Italy began mating on February 14, the oracles observed.

As part of the unbridled merrymaking, Roman maidens placed their names in an urn set up in the public square, and courageous bachelors were each entitled to one draw to determine their "blind dates" for the coming year.

THE CHRISTIAN church denounced these "pagan love lotteries." When bitter sermons only made the annual drawings more popular, churchmen set up competing lotteries in which the names of Saints were drawn. But being under the special protection of a certain Saint didn't prove particularly appealing to romance-hungry young Roman swains and maidens. So the Love Festivals continued.

In 496 A. D., Pope Gelasius tried a new approach by dedicating February 14 to St. Valentine and naming him the Patron Saint of true lovers.

During the Middle Ages, despite ecclesiastical opposition, "love lotteries" persisted in many European countries. The French called them "chance boxes" and allotted couples one year to get married or part company. In England, it became customary for men to wear the name of the girl they drew on their sleeve or bosom for several days, often encircled in a heart.

THE CHURCH denounced as superstitions many odd customs that began to spring up concerning the Lover's Feast Day—including the belief that if a girl would eat the white of a hard-boiled egg on St. Valentine's Eve, fasten five bay leaves to her pillow, and then go to sleep without speaking to anyone, she would certainly dream about her future husband that night.

Written Valentines appeared about the year 1400. At first, to elude vigilant fathers, they were hidden in hollow trees that served as trysting places. The quaint love missives were anonymous. Sometimes they were left on a young lady's doorstep by a bashful suitor who knocked and then promptly ran away.

As late as the Sixteenth Century, St. Francis de Sales, head of the Church in England, condemned Valentines publicly and severely forbade their use as immoral.

BUT AS CHURCH opposition gradually declined, new problems arose to plague love-smitten swains. Composing new verses, year after year, became a brain-racking problem. The familiar "roses-are-red, violets-are-blue, sugar-etc." theme was not only in use in the 1700's but popular young ladies already were beginning to complain that it was getting hackneyed from over use!

"The Young Man's Valentine Writer," a book of standard verses that could be copied, was published in 1797 and became highly popular immediately. The handbook was followed by numerous others, including "The Beauties of Hymen" and finally "The Quiver of Love."

Meanwhile, French gallants had begun ornamenting their February 14 billet-doux with gilt paper, ribbons, cut-out hearts, and real lace. Valentines grew in size and elegance, until they became filled with cupids, paper fountains, tiny fans, flower reproductions, intricate ornamental effects, surrounded by layer after layer of filmy lace.

EACH VALENTINE had to be made by hand. Pity the poor lover of the 1850's, scissors in hand, surrounded by stacks of colored paper, lace, brushes, and bottles of water colors.

On top of all this, Valentines became to be considered equivalent to a proposal of marriage. Stern fathers even judged would be suitors by the quality of their hearts-and-flowers missives and the ornate spencerian script in which verses had to be hand written.

As custom veered from the overly-sentimental, however, the light hearted modern Valentine was born. Publishing houses assigned their top artists and verse writers to creating Valentines. Their new billet-doux, beautifully printed and embossed and die-cut, brought the scissors-and-pastepot era to an end.

ANDREW C. RILEY

"Arlington Heights proved more inviting than either Washington, D. C., where both my wife and I were raised, and Birmingham, Alabama, where we lived for five years," Mr. Riley told the reporter.

They first came here on a visit five months ago and stayed with their son and daughter-in-law and their two children, Laurie and Dick, at 333 S. Evergreen ave.

At that time the senior Riley was transferred to Chicago by the government. Since then, he has changed positions and now is employed by McKim brothers in Chicago.

For a hobby both Mr. and Mrs. Riley enjoy going to the movies. They expect to join the Presbyterian church here. The Rileys have another child, a daughter who lives in Brooklyn, N. Y.

ALLEN DRACHMAN
825 N. Patton ave.

"My husband's from Detroit and I'm from Tucson," Mrs. Drachman told us, "but we've both adopted Arlington Heights as the best home we've ever had."

Our town is even "better" than California, according to the Drachmans, who moved here the first of July when Mr. Drachman was transferred to the Chicago office of the U. S. Gypsum company.

The Drachmans have a little girl whom they have named Christina Lynn Little "Chrissie".

OSCAR TYSSSEN
524 S. Highland

"Although we're newcomers to Arlington Heights, we're really not," Mrs. Tyssen began when the inquiring reporter called on her.

She explained that before they moved to Arlington Heights, they made their home with her mother in Palatine, and before that they lived for years in Des Plaines.

"But we just like the country around here so much that we've never cared to stray too far away," she added.

They moved south to our town from Wausau, Wis.

Mr. Swinbank works as a secretary and comptometer operator for a coal and farm equipment firm located in the Field building in Chicago. He is interested in all sports, especially fishing.

Nero the Leak Eater

Last year, our readers may recall, we dipped into herb history and came up with some odd ones in "The Herb Garden". This year we decided to do a somewhat similar story on garden vegetables. So we headed for our library chair to collect more bits of plant lore, legend and superstition. We found that Nero was given an uncomplimentary—but fitting—nickname because of his munching on a certain vegetable. The ancients believed that the very air was peopled with fairies, goblins, and things that go bump in the night. They felt that they had to be on guard against these enemies and diseases with charms and precautions from the plant world. Lovers were certain vegetables for good luck. We learned the sad meaning of the phrase "she hath given him turnips" and the pretty custom "Peasod Wooing". These and our other findings we call "The Kitchen Garden".

Great books courses gain acceptance at record rates

More than 150 organizations in the Chicago area have joined with the Great Books Foundation to help sponsor adult groups, reading and discussing today's basic problems through the medium of the great books, according to a survey revealed here today.

In making the results of the survey public, Lynn A. Williams, Jr., president of the Foundation, pointed to the reason for its rapid growth (in 1943 there were 165 persons studying the great books and now great books sessions all over the country attract an estimated 33,000 members.)

"Education concerned with purposes as well as with knowledge has long been recognized as the primary need in adult education," Williams said. "The difficulty has been to find the teachers. The great books program is continuing to grow because the great books constitute the greatest faculty ever assembled."

The groups, which meet twice a month, draw about 6,000 adults from the Chicago area.

American Legion Auxiliary notes

The younger generation

In presenting the younger generation this week, we have made it a family affair.

The three youngsters in this issue are Gerald, Edward and Sandra Peterson, children of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Peterson, 531 S. Bristol lane, Arlington Heights.

Gerald, who is three years old, is the "baby" of the family and has light brown hair and eyes.

Edward is the older of the two boys, but is still a "junior" in rank because he has his father's name. He has dark brown hair and violet blue eyes. He also is beginning to inherit the nickname "Pete" just like his dad.

"Pete," who will be five in May and "Gerry" provide color contrast for their sister Sandra, six and one-half years old, who has golden blonde hair and light blue eyes.

When she's not busy doing homework for her kindergarten class at the South school, Sandra likes to stay home and play "make believe" games with her brothers.

Matron of honor for the bride was Mrs. Marion Wille, sister of the bride, who was attired in a Kelly green rayon faille dress with a draped skirt and bustle. She carried a Kelly green muff with feathered carnations. The bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Hoehner of Detroit, a play Niles and New Trier meets Zion. Waukegan on the basis of their great season record and top position in the Suburban league is the regional favorite. Waukegan's only losses were a one pointer to Proviso in the league opener and a one pointer to Dundee at Christmas time.

Dundee favored at Elgin tourney
Hebron is the favorite to win their own District and advance to the Elgin regional where they will play against Arlington Hgts. In the same bracket Palatine for the fourth straight year plays Elgin. Favorite of the tourney is hot shooting Dundee paired with Crystal Lake. In the same bracket we find Woodstock opposing McHenry.

Bensenville gets break in Glenbard tourney pairings
Bensenville is one of the seeded teams in the tough Glenbard regional. The Bisons are paired with Downers Grove in the opening round and if successful would meet the winner of the game between Maine Twp. and the district winner in the semifinals.

As Arlington easily beat Maine and Bensenville beat Arlington the lower bracket stacks up as a good chance for Coach Meneguini's Bisons if they are on their game. In the upper bracket Glenbard, ranked 14th in the state, plays Hinsdale, another good club. The other game pits York against Immaculate Conception.

Mt. Prospect girls win from Itasca
Mt. Prospect Girls Walther league team won a 17-9 victory over the Girls' Walther league team of Itasca at Park Ridge Sunday, February 8. Both teams were matched at the intermission. Third period saw the locals run ahead and retain the advantage the final quarter.

As the Cook County Herald sport page goes to press on Wednesday afternoon fans in both local conferences will be anxiously awaiting two of the big games of the season to be played that night. In the Northwest Conference the big game of the year which will decide the championship is Bensenville at Barrington. Both have records of 10 victories and one defeat and neither is likely to lose their remaining two games if they can get by this one. Barrington has the home court advantage. Over in the Northeast the leaders Niles and Woodstock also clash Wednesday night at Woodstock in one of many crucial games coming at the season end.

Tightest cage race in N. E. conference history near close
Four teams seem to have the edge in the Northeast with Woodstock, Arlington and Leyden pushing Niles to the limit in a bid for the championship. Only a game and a half separate first and fourth places. It is not necessarily games between the leaders which will decide the championship for Crystal Lake, Libertyville, and Lake Forest are all good enough to knock off any of the teams. Niles has lost to Libertyville and Arlington. Woodstock lost to Niles and Leyden early in the schedule. Arlington has been beaten by Niles, Leyden, and Woodstock. Leyden lost to Woodstock, Lake Forest, and Niles.

Friday, Leyden returns to Arlington for another win or gets out of the race game. The next Friday, February 20, Arlington plays at Woodstock. The final game of the season will be Niles at Leyden February 27 and that night decide the championship for one of those teams or someone else. Your guess is as good as ours. At the start of the season we picked Woodstock and Leyden as the teams to beat and they are still very much in the picture.

1950 state tourney might be in Springfield
There is talk that the state tourney might be moved from Champaign to Springfield by 1950 as the state fair grounds field house there will be completed and will seat 15,000 spectators. Asked about this possibility by the press, Mr. Willis, high school association executive secretary, stated that the fans would probably welcome this change and so might the school men, but the state board might not wish to move the tourney from the educational atmosphere of the University. "After all," he remarked, "the tourney is not being run as a money making venture."

Thollander breaks a scoring record
By the time this issue is being read Bob Thollander may have broken the Northwest conference scoring record. He needed just 12 points after last Friday's 18 counters racked up against Antioch. At Barrington with the league championship at stake Bob, a great competitor, will need to rise to the occasion to help his team win. Points will be forgotten in winning the game but accurate Bob will get those 12 points and possibly more to break Barrington's Koche's 209 record of last year. With two more games with Grant and Wauconda the Bison head will make a mark for future sharp shooters to aim at, but probably not reach.

Bisons defeat Antioch twice to keep NW pace

Bensenville's Bisons were still tied for Northwest conference honors after Friday's 47-32 win over Antioch, though their game with Barrington this week, Wednesday night, will be history by the time this paper goes to press.

The Bisons, though starting slow, gathered speed to hold a four point advantage at the intermission, then forged far ahead the final segment.

AGAIN it was five men landing in the scoring column for coach Meneguini's boys, with big Bob Thollander leading the way. Though Bob was yanked about three-quarters of the way through, he pulled seven baskets and four charities to come within twelve points of the all-time Northeast individual scoring record.

With Wednesday night's contest rated "most decisive" of the season.

ROBERTSON'S six and Huffman's five scores also counted. Kraft with 13 and Buchta with 11 were tops for the losers.

Frosh-soph opener found the junior Bisons also coming out on top, 47-35. It was a third quarter spurt that carried the locals into the win column, after trailing, 10-6, and, 20-18, at the half.

Bensenville swished the hoops for 12 points the third quarter, and 17 the final, while Antioch was accumulating three and eight.

Niles noses Crystal Lake by 1 point

by BILL NEUSON

After trailing by 15 points early in the third period, the Niles Trojans came back to defeat a best breaking Crystal Lake quintet, 40-39, at Niles Friday night, February 6.

The Trojans scored 22 points while holding the Lakers to four, after falling behind by 15 scores. After dropping behind, 40-35, the Tigers rallied for four points, to fall one short of a tie.

Sad note for the Trojans in crucial games still on top for the league leaders is the loss of first string guard, Ed Kutz, who has been sidelined by a broken ankle bone.

The Jayvees of Niles defeated Crystal Lake Jayvees, 33-14. Niles led all the way from an opening 7-3 advantage, to 16-4 at halftime, and 24-5 going into the home stretch.

School heads must lead the way to sportsmanship among fans

by BOB YOUNG

That high school coaches hold the key to good sportsmanship is the result of a poll among state sport writers just completed throughout Illinois. For as the coaches do, so follows the crowd.

Booing and showing of poor sportsmanship on the part of fans is even more evident this year than last, and sports writers, headed by T. O. White of Champaign, decided something should be done to call attention to the rules and fair play actions of the Illinois State high school association in this matter.

Crowds at basketball games, like mobs at lynchings, are easily swayed against anyone in authority. In the case of the cage sport, a referee calling a decision against the home squad immediately develops the resentment of the rabid home team fans.

BUT SUCH animosity remains undisturbed, for the most part, unless some display of resentment on the part of any one of the players, or the coaches, leads the way.

The state association has several methods of clamping down on offending schools, whose followers develop the bad reputation for the institution. They have recently released a list of recommendations for principals which include:

1—Education of the students by printed circulars, talks, stunts.

2—Urge students to carry this gospel home to their parents.

3—Training of cheerleaders in methods of crowd control.

4—Use of a well-trained announcer on the public address system to quiet the crowd.

5—ACQUAINT students and fans with action of the school board and what can be the results of poor sportsmanship.

6—Education of coaches as to their responsibilities, with the coaches to remain seated during the game.

7—Providing capable ushers and police protection to eject offending fans.

8—AS A LAST resort, there is no law that states games must be played before the public. Clearing the gymnasium, or playing just before the student body could easily be the verdict in case the crowd became too objectionable.

coaches in showing sportsmanship, the sport writers agreed the mentors can lead the crowd in three different manners:

They can have a hand shaking ceremony at the start of the game, to dispel any thoughts of hard feelings. They can immediately pull from the game any "hot-headed" player who shows poor sportsmanship. And they can control their own feelings by remaining seated on the bench at all times, never letting the crowd know they may not agree with all decisions.

Within the last week a riot after a basketball game in the east occurred because of rival coaches shouting at the referees, the crowd joining in. Immediately after the contest the losing coach ran across the floor to congratulate his opponent.

Most of the players and crowd then rushed onto the floor to defend their mentors, with 1,400 people milling around, hurling insults, and a few punches being traded among spectators. Police dispelled the mob.

Sports writers are agreed that player sportsmanship is good but that the sportsmanship of some coaches and most fans could be improved.

Ela downs

Wauconda, 33-32

For the second straight week Wauconda high school cage squad had victory within their grasp in the final minutes of Northbrook's conference games, but could not come through. Ela took the measure of the Bulldogs, 33-32, in a game in which the Bears led all the way, but squeaked through at the end.

After gaining a 10-9 first quarter advantage, Ela pushed ahead to 21-15 at intermission. Wauconda began to catch up the third frame, 28-25.

SNETSINGER'S 11 tallies were high for the Lake Zurich five, while Binkowski's six buckets and one charity were tops for the losers.

In the frosh-soph fracas, Ela won in a walk away. With Prouty and Schwarz showing the way offensively, garnering nine points each, Lake Zurich led, 14-2, 18-5, and 27-7 going into the final stanza.

Weinberg was high for the Wauconda yearlings with an even half dozen.

Card frosh cop 3 more

Arlington freshman cage squad won three games the past week, one of them against Libertyville, a hair raising thriller. This brings the youngest Cards' record to one defeat in eight contests with three tilts remaining on the schedule.

The locals traveled to Libertyville Thursday for the close one, the Wildkittens grabbing a 17-16 halftime lead, after the locals had conquered, 12-9, in the first quarter.

HEIGHTS regained the advantage, 26-24, the third quarter, only to find nary a basket scored by either team the final segment. Libertyville carded one free throw.

Friday the freshmen traveled to Niles Friday and led all the way to emerge victorious, 29-22. The locals grabbed a first half, 17-7, lead, and held onto it for victory number two in two days.

MONDAY The Heights five took the measure of Lake Forest, 37-21. Opening period was slow, the Lakers leading, 5-4. But by the end of the third segment, Arlington was leading, 26-18. Lovals pulled further ahead the final quarter.

Arlington scoring was pretty evenly divided with Clark and Faskick being top men the first game, Schwartz and Evans the second, and Schwartz and Roche the third.

Cards defeat Lake Forest

through the hoop a total of 6 field goals and 10 charity tosses for 22 points. Lake Forest never kept up with Heights in this segment, and hit for a total 10 points shy of Arlington's with 12 counters. Bill Robinson led the local scoring pack by swishing the hoop for 7 points and was followed by Beckman and Heimsoth who got 5 tallies apiece. Lake Forest lost the services of Anderson in the final period as he committed his fifth personal foul. Jones' 5 points headed the Scouts' last quarter scoring, but the Lakers just couldn't keep up with the Cardinals' fast past, with the result registering in a 43-33 conference win for Arlington.

In their next contest, this Friday, the locals tangle with a hot and cold Leyden outfit on the home floor. The Cards need this game to stay in the conference race and also will be out to avenge an earlier defeat handed them by the Eagles. On Saturday, the Cards will travel to Barrington for a non-conference game.

THE ARLINGTON Junior varsity showed that it is still fighting to grab a share of the North-east title as the Junior Cards rang up their tenth victory in twelve starts to the tune of 37-23 in the opening contest of the night.

The locals found the visitors to be quite tough in the first quarter as they led by only one point, 2-0, when the period came to a halt. Eugene Busse, who just returned from an ailment, got back into his old form and paced the Cards' first period scoring with 4 tallies. McGowan had the same number to lead Lake Forest in this period. Arlington completely outplayed the Scouts in the second segment by dropping in 11 markers to the Lakers' 3. Busse once again led the Arlington attack by pouring in 5 points. Paul Roche was close behind with 2 field goals. Nolan counted for all the Scouts' scoring in the second period. At half time the score read 20-11 in favor of Arlington.

THE CARDS made it a run-away affair in the third frame as they again outpointed Lake Forest, 11 counters to 4. Chuck Fischer and Marvin Prellberg notched 4 tallies each, and Bob Cowen hit for 3 to account for Heights' third quarter scoring. Anderson paced the Scouts with 4 points, while Phillips connected for 2. Going into the final seven minutes of play, the Cards held a 31-17 advantage.

Substitutes finished the last period for both teams and as a result each five scored 6 counters. This put the Cards on the top end of a 37-23 victory.

Busse led all scoring with 9 tallies while Fischer was right behind with 8 points. Anderson's 6 were high for the Scouts.

This is the third in a series of columns on the story behind your tax bill. Clip these columns until you have the complete story.

The tax rate that is applied to the so-called 100% value of your property to determine your tax bill includes a share for each of the local governments serving you.

The first step in determining how much of your tax money each of your local governments is actually going to get is for each of your governments to decide how much tax money it wants to spend. Each of your governments decides the amount of your tax money that it wants to spend when it adopts its budget and tax levy ordinance.

Your tax bill includes an amount for your county government, to pay for the many services that your county government performs for you. The expense of the county jail, court house, county home, jurors' fees, election expenses, cost of office equipment, court reporters' salaries, publication of the real estate and personal property assessment lists and other expenses are paid out of what is known as the county corporate or general fund. Your tax bill includes the tax for this purpose.

If you and the other voters have authorized your county to issue bonds to pay off outstanding debts or for construction of county buildings, a part of your tax will be for payment of principal and interest on such bonds. Your tax bill also includes an amount for improving and maintaining county highways, and the county highway fund tax for this purpose is included in your tax bill.

In the 17 commission organized counties, your county board levies a tax to provide a fund to care for paupers and relief of the poor. In the other counties this is a township function. You and the other voters in your county may have authorized the establishment of a county tuberculosis sanitarium. If so, the county board may levy a tax for this purpose, the money to be used to provide a sanitarium to care for the county's tuberculosis patients without the tax for this purpose will be a part of your total tax bill.

Your county alone, or in conjunction with one or more adjacent counties, can also set up a county public health fund if you and the other voters approve it at an election, and may levy a tax to establish a full-time health department.

Subject to approval by you and the other voters in your county at an election, your county may also levy a separate tax for a county library fund, county fair fund, county cemetery fund (to restore neglected cemeteries throughout the county), a soldiers' and sailors' burial fund (to pay burial expenses of deceased soldiers, sailors and marines who may die without sufficient means to pay such costs), a county detention home fund (to provide temporary care for dependent children pending proceedings under the Juvenile Court Act), a county municipal employees' retirement fund, a county airport fund, a cancer and tumor relief fund (to pay for treatment of persons so afflicted and unable to pay for treatment), a county hospital fund (for care and treatment of persons who are a charge upon the county).

Your county may, without your approval at an election, establish a county historical museum fund.

Your tax bill, therefore, includes a substantial amount of your county government and this amount is for a number of county funds. Your county government adopts or approves a separate budget and tax levy for each of these funds.

The only way that you can be sure that the amount of your tax bill for county government or any other local government will be reduced is through reduction in the amount that the local governments ask for in their budgets and tax levy ordinances.

Louise Wildhagen, Palatine, who died January 24, left an estate valued at $9,500, according to a petition to divide the will which was filed Friday with John W. Tauchen, clerk of probate court.

About $7,500 of her holdings were in real estate. Sole heir, according to the will, is a nephew, Arthur Wildhagen, of Champaign. The petition was filed by Atty. Gerard A. Connor.

Miss Wildhagen had made her home at 145 East Chicago ave.

Arlington takes double beating at Belvidere

by MARVIN PRELLBERG

After winning their last five cage contests, the Arlington Cardinals made the long journey to Belvidere Saturday evening where their win streak was stopped by the Bucs, who won a close hard fought contest by a final count of 37-29, in a non-conference game. Belvidere showed the capacity crowd a mixture of excellent ball handling, speed and dead shooting.

In the first quarter Belvidere held a slight lead as it racked up 11 tallies to Arlington's 8. The Bucs' big and tricky forward, Johannes, spearheaded the home team's rally by putting in 3 field goals. Gritzmacher and Bender each notched a field goal free throw. Arlington's 8 points were divided with Vic Heimsoth connecting for 5, Bill Robinson 2, and Orville Schaeffer 1.

THE CARDINALS had their best period in the second segment as the local five out scored their rivals 10-8, to leave the Cards only 1 point behind at the end of the first half, 19-13. A substitute forward, Phil Roche, poured in 4 counters for Arlington and he was followed by Heimsoth who got 3. Schaeffer, who sank a field goal, and Gordon Busse who swished a gift shot. Bender led the Bucs with 4 markers.

However, Belvidere returned for the third quarter and put on a scoring burst that netted it 12 points, while the Cards could only find room for a pair of baskets by Schaeffer and 3 tallies by Heimsoth. The Bucs' speedy guard Gritzmacher, was hot for the home team, in this frame as he swished the nets for 7 points. Johannes was next in line with 3, and Kolar dropped in the other 2. Thus going into the final period, Belvidere was riding on a 31-25 lead.

BELVIDERE made sure of its victory in the last segment when it once more outpointed the Arlington five, 8-4. Gritzmacher led the visitors in this last period by hitting for a duo of set shots, while Beckman furnished the Cards 3 of their 4 fourth quarter points. As a result the Bucs managed to end Arlington's five-game winning streak, and whip the Cardinals by 10 points, 39-29.

In the preliminary tilt, the Arlington and Belvidere junior teams fought in a hair-raising contest which ended, only after an extra period had been added, in favor of the Belvidere Bucs who had to come from behind to win by a 50-45 final.

The Cards fell behind in the first period, 15-14. Turner sparked the home team's offense with 5 tallies, while Haas and Buhl were close behind with 4, and Hindman with 2. Eugene Busse and Paul Roche put in 4 points for Arlington's cause, and Chuck Fischer, Bob Cowen and Marvin Prellberg furnished the rest with 2 each.

IN THE NEXT period the locals had their best quarter by outscoring Belvidere, 11-6, to take the lead at half time, 25-21. Fischer's 5, Busse's 4 and Prellberg's 2 rounded out the Cards' second period scoring. Burroughs hit 4 tallies to pace the Bucs and Sahr hit 2.

The Cards' lead did not last long in the third frame as Belvidere caught up on the visitors and played them to a 33-33 standstill when the quarter ceased. Ross' 6 points were high for the Bucs in the third period, as were Busse's 6 counters tops for Arlington.

Both squads battled on even terms in the fourth and final quarter but it appeared as though the Cards had the game when with less than a minute left the Arlington cagers were stalling it out with a 2 point lead, 42-40. But the Bucs stole the ball with less than 20 seconds to go. Burroughs dribbled in for a shot and was fouled by Prellberg. Under great pressure, Burroughs dropped in both free throws to bring the game into an overtime, having tied up the contest at 42 all.

THE LOCALS were completely outplayed in the overtime as they threw away several important passes and let up on their defensive play. Belvidere poured in 8 points to Arlington's 3 in the deciding overtime and the game ended with a heartbreaking loss for Coach George Gibson's cagers by a 50-45 final.

Eugene Busse played a great game for the locals as he accounted for 20 points. Burroughs led the visitors with 13 counters. Arlington (29) Belvidere (38)

Lombard deep well breaks down; find level decreasing

Provision for a new village well was seen to be none too timely at the Lombard village board meeting when Trustee Inman reported the present 2,000 foot well, hitherto main reliance for village water, broke down, will be out of action for a minimum of several weeks to come and may be of doubtful value henceforth.

Present source of water supply will be ample until the peak demands of mid-summer set in, it was pointed out. Meanwhile study and repair of the deep well will be rushed. A similar overhaul job cost $2,500 in 1944, the trustee reported, but this one may entail an unknown greater expense owing to discovery that the water supply appears to have shrunk far below what had been estimated.

Take Time To Relax

by C. W. LUSSMAN of Sieburg Drug Co.

Life today is lived at a very fast pace. Everything is geared for speed. It's no wonder then that so much emphasis is placed on relaxation. To forget completely your cares and duties for a short time is a necessity if you are to enjoy good health.

The kind of relaxation you need depends a great deal on your occupation, and your state of health. Often your doctor is the best judge of what activities will provide the most healthful relaxation for you. A doctor has the training and experience to understand health problems. Believe yourself of unnecessary worry by entrusting your health cares to him. For the same reason entrust your prescription to a worthy pharmacist.

'Shangri-La' at Heights high nears completion

by Elaine Simms Goewey

The rooms in the new addition to the high school will have that "new look!" Multi-colored walls are the latest thing in the teaching world, so it is only natural for a progressive school such as Arlington Heights township high school to have them. The color scheme is not definite as yet, but one thing is certain. The walls will be painted in cheerful colors!

Your reporter went on a tour of the new addition, conducted by Mr. Knoepfel. As we walked from room to room, Mr. Knoepfel spoke of the many unusual features that the "dream rooms" will have. For instance, did you know that all of the woodwork and cabinets will be done in limed oak?

FIRST, we went through the science department. Believe it or not! The west wall of the general science room will be decorated with wallpaper, and the physics room will have blackboards that slide up and down. The biology and general science rooms are nearly completed. In fact, the biology room is already in use! The physics and chemistry labs will not be used by the science department this year, because of the problem of moving equipment. Instead, these rooms will be used by other classes.

The greenhouse, the dimensions of which are 23' x 12', is under the supervision of Mr. Kemman. Right now there are several plants flourishing in it. In the future the greenhouse will contain an aquarium and a terrarium with live plant and animal specimens. Here Mr. Kemman's hamsters will find an animal heaven.

Next, we came to the athletic department. There will be a private dressing room for the varsity team and the coach whose shop is in season, and the varsity boys will have a separate shower room. Also in this section are a dressing room and shower room, which will be used by the boys' gym classes. There is a room for towels and equipment. Mr. Grace, the athletic director, will have a private office in this section.

AS WE CONTINUED on our tour, Mr. Knoepfel told me about the war surplus materials that the high school purchased recently. The list of materials that the high school purchased included such items as: electronic materials, machine tools, surveyor's level, a gyroscope, and cabinets. Through the purchase of war surplus materials the school has been able to obtain much modern equipment at a low cost.

Next, we came to the mechanical drawing room. This room, which features direct fluorescent lighting, measures 50' x 23' and will seat twenty-four students.

Last, we viewed the excellently equipped shops. The machine shop contains over fifty thousand dollars worth of machinery. Some of the machines were purchased by the school, but most of them were donated by the government through the war surplus. The saw-toothed ceilings of the shops are something new in school architecture and were designed to get more light.

ONE INTERESTING fact Mr. Knoepfel stated is that the new addition will have adequate storage space and cabinets. That's one thing many schools lack.

As we came to the end of our tour, I felt somewhat piqued because my next year's schedule does not include any classes in this modern "Shangri-la." But I was happy for those students who will have a chance to learn in a stream-lined atmosphere. It is estimated that about three-fourths of the students will be using the science department, and about one-half will be using the shops. From these students studying in a pleasant environment and equipped with the best of tools will surely come superior achievements. With that "new look" encompassing them their outlook for the future will be bright. Who knows what dreams will be dreamed within these walls, what miracles will come to pass?

Still time for kids to enter contest for sports show

RAMBLE INN 'N OUTINGS

by BILL NORTH

Well the new officers of Ramble Inn, Ken Bork, Bonnie Peterson, Carol Dempsey, Dick Spratt, Barbara Tichy and Bernard Brock are taking up the reins of the organization of Ramble Inn without any waste of time.

A meeting was held last night, Wednesday, February 11, to discuss and decide upon the plans for the coming spring season. Among the many issues discussed was the coming of the April Showers dance. It is the big social event of the Ramble Inn season and will require a lot of planning and a lot of work. By the way, if you are asked to work on any of the committees, take the job because it's a lot of fun. I'll see to it that you get all the information available as it comes out.

Another topic of debate was in relation to the decorations in the dance floor of the Y. C. I couldn't get any actual information in time for the deadline but I will have all the proceedings for you next week.

Here's congratulations to the Arlington Cards who took a tough Lake Forest team on last Friday. Orv Shaeffer and Heimsoth were really outstanding for their accuracy. But let's not forget John Shanley, Wally Beckman, Bill Robinson and Phil Roche who were brilliant in their defense and offense play. And let's not forget the J. V. team. We're all glad to see Eugene Busse in his top form after his recent illness. He scored 20.

INDUSTRY

In the ordinary business of life industry can do anything which genius can do, and very many things which it cannot.

H. W. Beecher

What men want is not talent; it is purpose; in other words, not the power to achieve, but the will to labor.

—Bulwer-Lytton

The darkest hour in the history of any young man is when he sits down to study how to get money without honestly earning it.

—Horace Greeley

When a young man vainly boasted, "I am wise, for I have conversed with many wise men," Epictetus made answer, "And I with many rich men, but I am not rich." The richest blessings are obtained by labor.

A man who gives his children habits of industry provides for them better than by giving them a fortune.

—Whately

This Saturday one year ago we played Crystal Lake in the game that decided the outcome of the northeast championship. As you probably remember Crystal Lake beat Arlington in a game that was noted for its spiritedness.

Des Plaines has opposition to upping business licenses

Another hitch developed in the proposed increase in city business license fees at the city hall meeting last week when Joe Feulner of H. E. Balaban, owners of the Les Plaines Theatre, appeared to protest what he referred to as the excessive increase in the business fee the theater is scheduled to pay in 1948. The city proposes to charge the picture house about $475 according to Feulner's statement, an increase of more than 400c over last year's fee of $100.

Another difference arose as to the maximum charge under the ordinance. Some members of the Council were under the impression that certain businesses, other than those handling cigarettes and those food houses who employ more than three, could be charged more than the general $75 limit. Ald. Elmer Johnson (1st) took care of this by making a proposal that there be a $75 limit for all those except the two above-mentioned categories, and organizations such as restaurants and theatres which will be charged a fee in accordance with eating capacity.

SUES TO OUST

Max Oppenheimer, of Chicago, a large stockholder, has filed suit in the Superior court against the W. F. Chinvy Co., M. J. Betz, of Barrington, president, and Kathryn Griffin, secretary and treasurer. He asks an injunction to prevent the board of directors from re-engaging Betz as general manager for longer than their terms. Betz's contract expires April 1. Oppenheimer expects to control more stock soon and then evidently wants to oust Betz who gets a salary of $8,000 per year.

Tells how UNRRA aided Polish child agencies

Dr. Janina Suchodolska, director of general welfare and private agencies in Poland, was a guest February 4, at Bensenville Home. She is in the United States as a fellowship student of the United Nations, and has spent several weeks at Lake Success, New York.

In addition to having studied at the University of Iowa, in her native Poland, Dr. Suchodolska has also been a student at the University of Vienna, Grenoble university, France, and the University of Oaunanne.

From 1940-1944 when Poland was occupied by Germany, Dr. Suchodolska became active in the service of the underground, through which she was able to aid children in concentration camps, seeing that contributions from voluntary international agencies were received. She assisted in removing women and children from the camps, which was often a hazardous undertaking.

AFTER the liberation of Poland and in 1944, Dr. Suchodolska became head of the section of child welfare in the central committee of social welfare. This is a voluntary group working in close collaboration with other international agencies such as the American Friends' Service Committee (Quakers), the Salvation Army, Care, etc.

Through the work of this program 114 children's homes, 16 preventoria and sanatoria, 36 nursery schools, and 169 kindergartens have been established in various districts of Poland. Besides there are many children's clubs, 154 supplementary feeding centers, plus feeding centers in the schools.

THIS GROUP has also been active in assisting the aged; the committee has set up 64 homes, 2 sanatoria and many feeding centers, in addition to establishing a large work shop program. UNRRA support enabled the committee to carry out a great many of the projects; now that funds from this source are at an end, Dr. Suchodolska says the committee may have to curtail many of its activities.

Private agencies, according to Dr. Suchodolska must assume most of the financial burden for supporting all phases of welfare work, since public funds are not available. In Poland it is estimated it costs between $20 and $25 per month to maintain a child in a children's home, which is about half of the per capita cost at Bensenville Home. There are very few children in foster homes, since most of the families are so poor, they cannot accept such responsibilities. Only the "rich" families have adequate housing. She believes pre-school children should be placed with private families, ideally, since they need so much individual care and attention.

THE VOCATIONAL testing program used in the schools of Poland was stressed by Dr. Suchodolska as being of prime importance. When a child has completed the 7th grade (end of the elementary school system), he is given aptitude tests to determine for what he is best fitted in life. Before the war parents in Poland were ambitious for their children to have professional careers. Now they seem reconciled to getting them fitted into their proper grooves.

High school consists of 6 years schooling. . . there is a 4 year course, quite general, followed by an additional 2 years of specialization. Students are permitted to elect their specialties, but are given guidance, so as to keep their selections in line with their abilities. If a student shows no special aptitudes, he is encouraged to enter a trade school, where there are both 2 and 3 year courses offered.

IN SWITZERLAND, where Dr. S. visited recently, she was impressed with the value of courses given young girls in preparation for marriage parenthood.

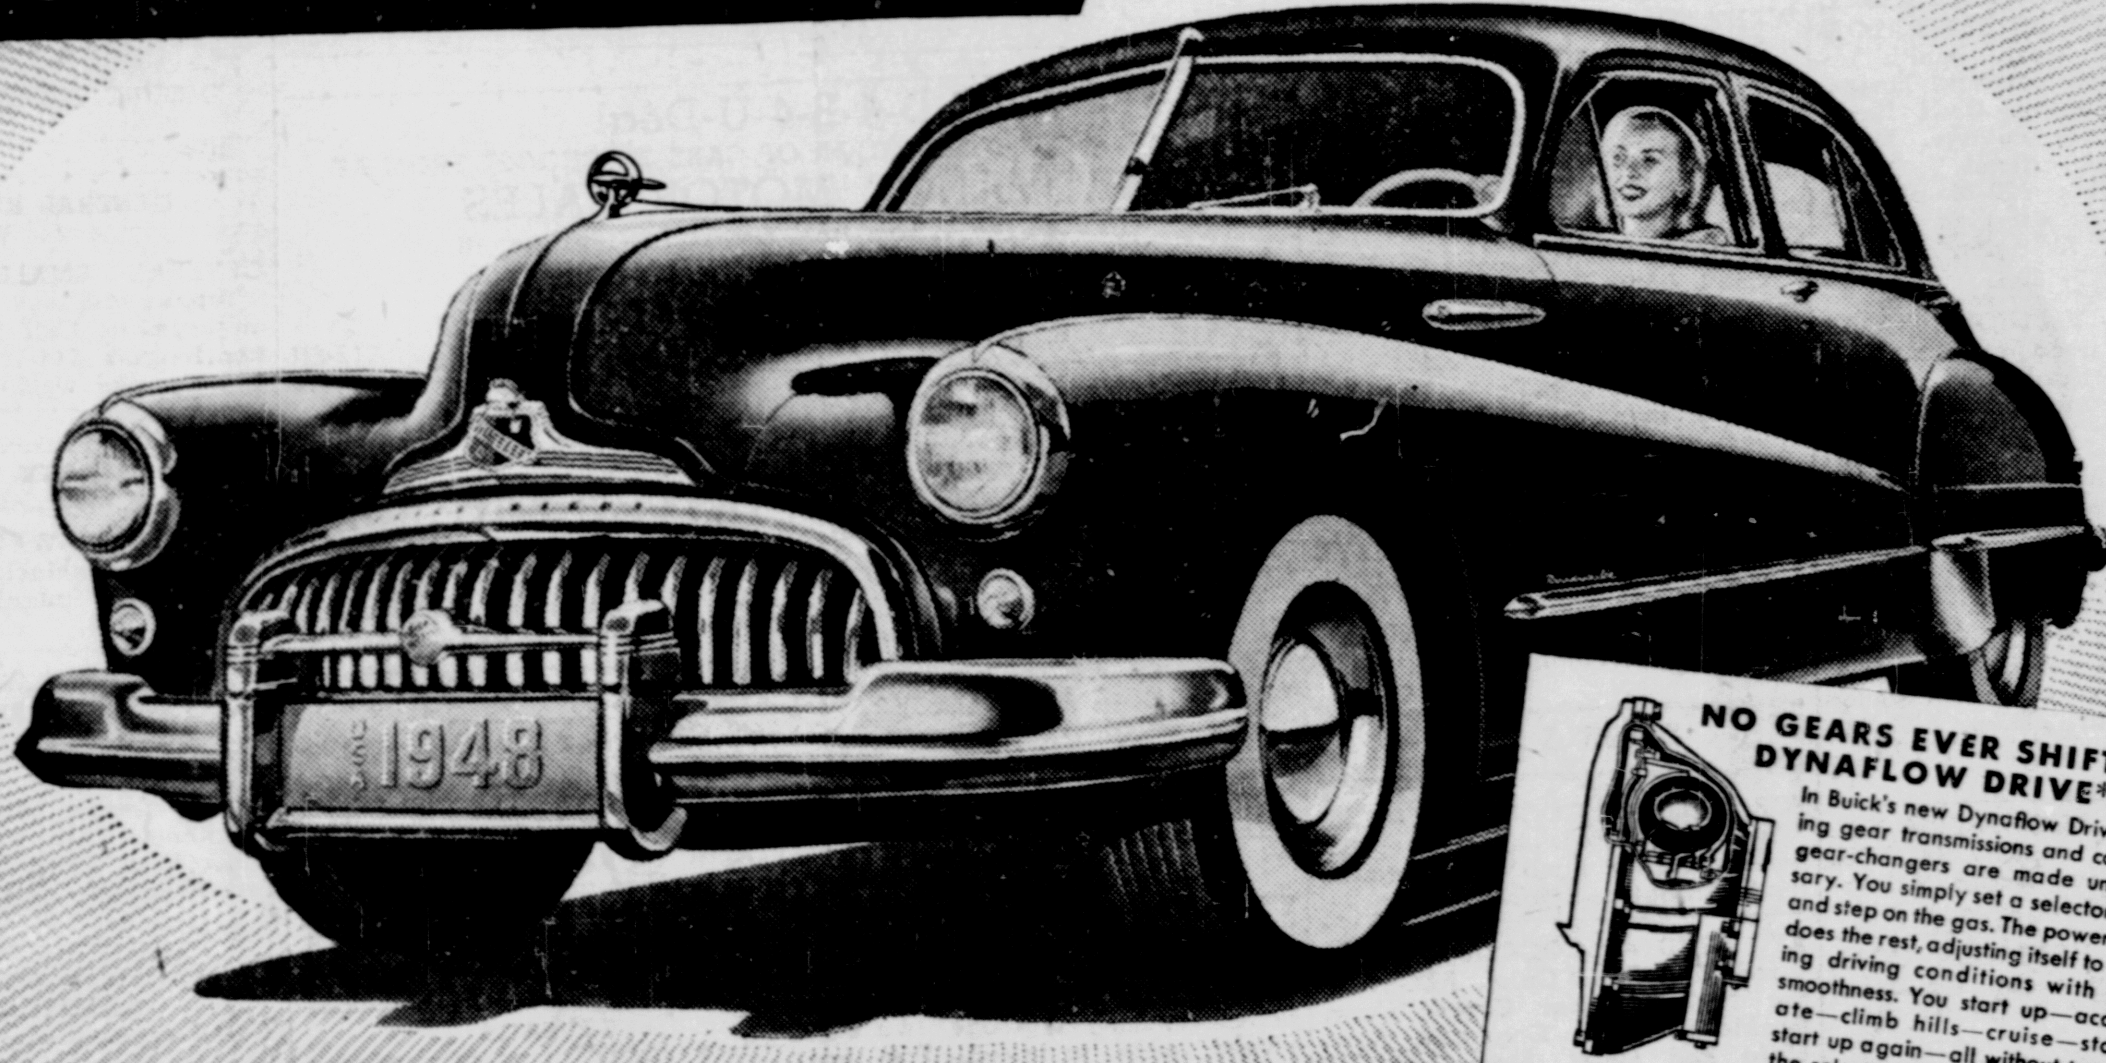

OTTO LAGERSCHAUSEN The will of the late Otto Lagershausen, R 8, Lee St., Des Plaines, who died January 5 has been admitted to probate in Chicago. He left his estate estimated worth $3,500 to his widow, Adeline and named her executrix of the will.

Storm upsets best laid plans

The recent snow and sleet storms caused a lot of difficulty in transportation. Wm. Deverman, Palatine, says last Saturday was the first time he ever failed to make a trip that he started upon. It was only a three mile journey, but the snow was too much for him and after digging the horses out of the snow several times and a few tip overs, he returned to Palatine with his passenger.

Herman Hass was bringing some passengers from Des Plaines and got stuck with his surrey between Hertz's and Rudolph Nohr's and broke the eveners. Another rig was secured of Wm. Seitz. A high snow mound showed next morning where the surrey had been left.

Ernest Gosch attended directors meeting at Jefferson Park Saturday afternoon. On his way home from Des Plaines in the evening he got stuck in a snow bank. After some difficulty he succeeded getting the horse out, then turned back and stayed with Fred Nagel over night. It was 10 a. m. Sunday before he reached home.

Married men are champions

The fifth indoor baseball game this season was played at Wheeling Tuesday evening and the married men managed to turn the tables on the single men. Although the play was very ragged in spots, yet several almost sensational catches were made and all-in-all the game was one of the fastest thus far played.

It was anybody's game until the last inning, as the close score of 13 to 12 proves, but the married men were the victors. The husbands got 15 hits, the lone wolf 16. Five men of each side fanned.

of the STREET

BY L. C. HART

APPRECIATION

A Palatine woman had some experience with dreaded polio last year.

First, her "baby sitter" became ill with the disease and the lady had a chance to observe what the polio foundation, which sponsors the March of Dimes, did to help such cases.

Then, while she was on a trip to California, the lady herself was taken ill, and polio was suspected.

She was rushed to a hospital, but luckily her illness was not polio.

Appreciating the wonderful work those interested in polio are doing and feeling that she should do something, she called on Mayor DePue when the recent drive started and took over the job of canvassing the entire community.

BURNED

Word from Roy LaLonde in Florida has it that he has acquired such a case of sunburn that he can't sleep.

To relieve the agony of the sunburn, he went out to the Hialeah race track.

He has sent word that the flamingos in the infield are beautiful. The horses? Well, anyhow, he saw them run!

MORE FROM FLORIDA

More news from Florida. This time from Albert DePue who wrote his dad that it's getting nice and warm there after the cold spell, that the water was warming up enough so that fishing soon will be good again.

Then we also had some pictures which the mayor showed around one morning with the remark, "Look at the sort of propaganda I get from Florida: there's my crew acting as if they were working hard."

And they were. Al, digging away at something, Ray Holtzee, posed behind the power mower, and the women folks and the youngsters all busy with rakes and picking up rubbish and having a bonfire.

"Can't fool me with that kind of propaganda," says the mayor. "Those pictures were posed to make me think everyone was busy doing lots of work."

But a picture of the orange grove showed the grove clean and neat. Maybe it wasn't all posing, after all.

PRICE OF BREAD

Speaking of Florida makes us wonder just how high the cost of living is down there in the garden of Eden.

We walked into the office with a loaf of bread the other day. "Did you just buy that at the bakery?" demanded the mayor.

After being assured that we had, we told him it cost twenty-one cents. It seems the mayor had sent his grandson for some bread and when the lad returned with only four pennies change, his honor was ready to raise Cain with someone about the high cost of living.

When we assured him that this had been the standard price these many moons, he said he was glad he hadn't "blown off" to someone.

All of which makes us wonder about Florida's cost of living. Don't they eat such common things as bread down there? Or do they eat only native fruits?

MORE WINTER

Yes, the groundhog saw his shadow and we are in for winter weather until the middle of March.

George Wilson says he tried to shoot the animal but it ducked back into its hole before George could draw a bead.

WINGS

Maybe the wings of winter haven't unfolded to any great extent, but last Thursday gave a little hint of better days to come.

The temperature was 26 above zero, but there was a faint balminess in the air.

YEAR AROUND ROBINS

Fred Hannerberg has a robin that regularly visits his bird feeding ground. Fred doesn't claim that this is the first robin of spring. In fact, the robin is a hold-over from winter.

During the extreme cold weather the robin didn't show up at all for several days and Fred thought old man winter had got the best of his robin, but along came a milder day and back came the robin.

Fred, like most other people around here, hopes it won't be too long before more robins show up to join his year-round bird who has been bold enough to spend an old-fashioned winter in this rugged climate.

PLAYER POOL

There are all kinds of pools, threshing pools, baseball pools, pools on the Kentucky derby, pools on the weather and everything else, but now comes a new sort of pool—a talent pool.

Palatine players, who are organizing a home talent players group, expect to have so many talented performers that they will have talent available for all sorts of occasions.

They want the Palatine group to be a pool from which a cast can be gathered for almost any type of show.

A group of the players will make their first public appearance in March when they put on a show for the combined Palatine Senior and Junior Women's clubs.

COMMUNITY CLUB PARTY

Nothing like a friendly game of cards to thaw people out and help them get acquainted with neighbors.

The Community club of Palatine proved that at the card party which approximately 125 people attended for an evening of fun and entertainment.

The party was one of the most successful of its kind ever held and everyone hopes more like it will be held.

IS THIS IT?

Commodity prices dropping, stocks going down, the land market off, interest rates going up, bank loans tightening, taxing bodies going broke and selling tax anticipation warrants, mutual play at the race tracks off 25 per cent, fewer people visiting the south for winter vacations—a tightening up all along the line.

What does it all mean? Well, it looks as if the old gravy train might be whistling for a siding, and that the hectic days were drawing to an end.

SHORT MONTH

Two emperors of Rome can be blamed for the fact that February has only 28 days. According to the World Book Encyclopedia, February had thirty days until the time of Julius Caesar, who took a day off to add to the month of July, which was named after him. The emperor Augustus took another day off to add to August, the month named after him.

It Happened Here

Our paper girl can still give odds to any paper boy of our acquaintance with each one was!

Our girl, and we seem to have adopted her, is a continual source of entertainment to us and always a pleasure to look at, neither snow nor zero weather has broken her spirit or succeeded in keeping her at home. She is always warmly dressed and very colorful with her gay sweaters and babushkas, and she tends strictly to business. Someone should have had a camera this frosty morning and taken a picture of our girl, cozily dressed, dragging her wagon of papers while her dog ran a hither and yon, enjoying the early outing; in the wagon rode a small boy, the girl was being paid to take care of the little boy; if so, that's a new high in baby sitting.

Says Paul Gibson, "The heater in my station wagon does very little good, it feels like a mouse breathing on my ankles." If anything felt like a mouse breathing on our ankles, well!

Calms columnist worrying about school 'hole in ground'

I KNEW YOU WHEN

The old "Working way through school" scheme is not worked as often as formerly. Housewives are getting wise to it. The new approach is: "I used to know you when..." and usually follows along these lines: "Surely, you remember me, Mrs. Smith? I used to live over in the next block..." Why I even delivered your evening paper for several years there."

Mrs. Smith probably doesn't exactly remember the young chap standing before her, but boys do change so quickly, and he does look rather familiar. So she continues to listen. "Right now I am trying to earn a course in aviation school. You see, I get points for each sale I make, and if I get enough it means a scholarship for me."

Maybe when he stops at your door he'll be working toward a savings bond, a college education or some other trumped up award. He may be selling unknown flavoring extracts, baking powder, face creams, or he may switch to magazines. He will reassure you his mother always uses this particular brand with amazing success. So does the lady next door. By this time you, like Mrs. Smith, will probably be feeling friendly—quite disposed to paying a deposit on an order which he assures you will be delivered "very shortly."

But before you reach into your purse, try to remember if you ever saw the young man before. Very likely he never lived in the neighborhood and he probably learned your name from a neighbor.

Another twist to the same scheme is the woman solicitor. She informs you that her husband is a returned veteran who has been wounded. She has at least three small children whom she is bravely trying to support. It is indeed a hard hearted woman who can turn her away from the door without buying something—housewives should realize that women solicitors can also be phonies. Check their stories—phone their offices to confirm their statements even though the sale involves a small amount of money.

The Chicago Better Business Bureau warns: be especially careful when you deal with unidentified door-to-door peddlers

DON'T WORRY, TOM!

The number of men a building contractor keeps on his payroll is strictly his own business. He, alone, is responsible for any losses of property—not the taxpayers (whose interests the editor of Tales of the Street guards so zealously). All that really belongs to the taxpayers on the new school building so far is a big hole in the ground and no one is likely to take that far.

This editor really ought to investigate the proposed monument to be built with taxpayers' money, at a not inconsiderable cost—a monument to the memory of the present school board.

What is really troubling you—Tom? Looking for a night watchman's job?

AID FOR VETS

It may not seem possible that 125,000 people can be lonesome but it is a situation that exists in this country today. Fellows who a few years ago had their whole lives before them now feel that there is little to live for. It is the job of the rest of the country to prove to our hospitalized veterans that theirs was not a lost cause.

A committee of leading Americans has taken it upon itself to cheer up these fellows by means of radios, television sets, and various forms of "live" entertainment. Our job is not very big compared to the one they performed. We are asked only to contribute money which should be sent to the Hospitalized Veterans Foundation fund headquarters at 6 N. Michigan ave. It is a contribution from which a great deal of satisfaction may be derived.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

Dear Jane:

Like many others, I find little time during the summer months to read, therefore, I try to make up for it, albeit in a small way, these winter days when I can spend a few hours in the library while waiting for the boys. Two afternoons a week after school they remain in town for basketball practice on Fridays and ballroom dancing instructions on Tuesdays. (We have two instructors from the Arthur Murray School of Dancing conducting one hour classes.) And how the children enjoy them!

On those days during these periods, I go to the library. Don't you love that very special smell all libraries have? And the quiet within those walls?

Are you as bewildered as most of us about the Marshall Plan, the Russians, our foreign policies, world crisis, etc.? Reading what the various authors have to say about solving our problems only tends to confuse one the more it seems, but at least, it makes one think a little.

A top-notch piece (or so it impressed me) of reporting by Hal Lehrman, called "Russia's Europe," published by Appleton-Century, is a most informative source of observations. The author was dropped by PM and other journals for these reports!

This is an impressively documented, briskly written record of two years behind the Iron Curtain prefaced by a stay in Greece. Mr. Lehrman interviewed communist bosses and opposition leaders, attended trials, and investigated every facet of communist "democracy." He apparently came away impressed by the communists' energy in tackling reconstruction and appalled by very nearly everything else.

The author offers no "what we should do to be saved" chapter, but suggest that "one way NOT to stop the Russians is by conciliatory discussion and hopeful concession." The other way NOT to stop them is to throw our weight behind the remnants of European reaction, which he convicts the democracies of doing in Greece. His conclusions find support from Hamilton Fish Armstrong, the editor of "Foreign Affairs," who has written a modest and impressive little book, "The Calculated Risk" (Macmillan).

Mr. Armstrong holds that the main objectives of our foreign policy, should be "to help Europe live and to strengthen the United States." To this end he urges unending use of the Marshall Plan and suggests a scheme for freeing the United Nations from the overworked and crippling veto! A supplementary protocol, formulated under Article 51 of the charter and open to all the signatories of which would agree to resist aggression if two thirds of them decided collective action was called for under the charter, and if the security council failed to act.

This so-called "Armstrong Plan," judging from favorable comments of Senator Vandenberg, might soon become official policy.

Then I read Vera Micheles Dean's thought in her book, "The United States and Russia," published by the Harvard University Press, that she considers it folly to impose our concepts of democracy and free enterprise on countries in which these concepts have no roots. She sees the extremists' and the appeaser's viewpoints. For the reader in search of factual information, this is another informative book.

A lot has been said and is being written on world affairs, and while the "little people" can't hope to do much to straighten out the sad state of the world, we can, as I mentioned before, at least make an effort to read a portion of what is printed in order to make comparisons and arrive at some intelligent conclusions in our own minds.

With love, Mary.

Maybe the wings of winter haven't unfolded to any great extent, but last Thursday gave a little hint of better days to come.

With love, Mary.

Walking in Rain
Grace Nell Crowell

TOGO rubber-cloaked and rubber-shod,
Out in the rain and the clean drenched air,
Smelling wet grass and the thirsty sod,
A silver mist in my eyes and hair,
And the tang of it, and the taste of it
In my lips, and everywhere
The drip, drip, drip from the tip
Of heavy leaves and the wet, gray sky,
Catching the roadside flower's deep stain,
The sudden note of a cricket's cry—
It is delightful walking in rain!

I would rather trudge down some country way,
All alone on a rainy day,
Than to walk in the sunshine with a crowd
Whose laughter is shrill and whose speech is loud.
The rain is a sincere friend to me,
And a cricket is excellent company.

Motor club tells deductions for business use of cars

Preparing their 1947 income tax reports, many motorists may take numerous allowable deductions for car expenses, the variety and extent of which are largely dependent on whether their ears are used for business or pleasure and on the method used in making the tax return, Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor club announced.

Motorists with incomes less than $5000 receive deductions for allowable car expense automatically if they compute their tax from the table on page four of form 1040. If their incomes exceed $5000 they may take a standard deduction of $500, replacing specific deductions for automobile expenses and other types of allowances. Reporting in either manner, motorists may not also itemize their deductions on page three of the income tax form, the club's study points out.

Applicable to all motorists with incomes under $5000 who do not use the standardized table in preparing their reports and to those with incomes over $5000 who do not take the standard $500 deduction are the following items, regardless of use of car for pleasure or business: state registration or license fees, city vehicle tax, certificate of title and operator's license fees, and the state gasoline tax of three cents per gallon in Illinois and four cents in Indiana.

Other items deductible regardless of car use are the Illinois sales tax, state personal property taxes, interest paid on automobile loans, and such casualty losses not compensated by insurance as fire, theft, or collision. Deductible interest on automobile loans is to be distinguished from finance and other charges, which are not deductible.

The Collector of Internal Revenue construes driving to and from work or place of business as personal and not business use of the car, and therefore a non-deductible expense, Mr. Hayes reported. Other non-deductible expenses include payment of fines for traffic violations or other violations of motor laws, and federal excises on such items as batteries and tires.

With the exceptions noted, almost all expenses incurred in using cars exclusively for business in earning taxable income may be deducted, providing the taxpayer has not been reimbursed for them by his employer. Typical deductions for tax purposes, providing the items have not been included in expense accounts for which the taxpayer was reimbursed by his employer, are the cost of gasoline and oil, depreciation, garage rent, storage fees, greasing and washing, automobile insurance premiums, tools, chauffeur's salaries, and payments of accident claims arising from business use of the vehicle. If the car is used partly for business and partly for pleasure the taxpayer may compute the various expense items and deduct the percentage of the total proportionate to his business use of the car.

Only to the extent their vehicles are used for business, taxpayers are entitled to deduct charges for car depreciation, the motor club warns. Necessary factors in determining this deduction are how far and hard the car is driven yearly, its cost to date of latest report, how long the taxpayer has had the car, and amount of depreciation charged in previous tax reports.

Using the "straight line" method of depreciation commonly practiced, the taxpayer computes the difference between the original value of the car and that estimated for the end of its anticipated useful life. Divided by

Plan modern farmhouse for happy living

A basic plan for a farmhouse, adaptable to requirements and living conditions on owner-operated farms in the North Central States; has been developed by the University of Illinois.

The plan is flexible and simple. It is for a one-story house which can easily be adapted to various locations and needs. With minor changes it can be used in city locations. It is presented in an illustrated 8-page free circular issued by the Small Homes Council at the University of Illinois.

The plan allows for one to four bedrooms, or for adding bedrooms as the family grows. The basic plan consists of two rectangular units, one the living and work area, the other the sleeping and bath area. They can be put together in a variety of ways to suit the farm site and family wishes. Each unit is 16 feet wide.

Among special features of the plan are:

- An entrance to the living area placed convenient to the driveway to overcome the housewife's complaining that visitors always come in the back door. Another entrance is from the farmyard.
- Kitchen and workroom placed to give a view of the highway, of the approach from it, and of the farmyard, since these rooms are the control center of the farm.
- A breakfast nook which doubles as a sewing area.
- A living room and dining room combined into one large area to provide flexibility and economy of space.
- A workroom which provides washup space, office space for desk and files, laundry space, work space for processing food and preparing produce for market, and storage cabinets or closets.
- A place near the rear entrance for workers to clean up and leave their work clothes.
- Heating unit and coalbin, and an all-purpose room in the basement.

End draws near for filing claim for terminal leave

Only a few months remain for former enlisted men of World War II to apply for terminal leave pay. It is estimated that several thousand Illinois veterans have neglected to seek this special benefit.

Deadline for filing of these claims is August 31, 1948, but veterans are urged to make application immediately to avoid the last minute rush.

Former enlisted personnel are entitled to pay in the grade held at time of discharge for all full-length time not used while in service. Either cash or bonds may be requested. Survivors of deceased servicemen and guardians of incompetent veterans are also eligible to apply.

Assistance in making application will be given by Walter S. Haynes, service officer of the Illinois Veterans' Commission in Cook county. The office is located at 41 South Prospect ave., Park Ridge.

SUES ARLINGTON PARK

Felix J. Shotke has sued the Arlington Park Jockey club in the Superior court for $15,000 damages for an unusual accident he says he suffered while attending the races there June 16. He says he was hit in the face by a spear used by an attendant in picking up waste paper. His eyeball was injured and glasses broken, he charges.

the useful years of service, this figure yields the amount annually deductible, but the total depreciation for all years must not exceed the original value less the junk value. For example, annual charge-off by the straight-line method of 15 percent could not be made for more than six years, the motor club warns.

that home owners around here know Johns-Manville quality and they are all interested in comfortable and fire proof place to live, by blowing Johns-Manville Home insulation into the sidewalls and attics of their buildings.

Ernest C. Andreas, local district manager for Johns-Manville "blown in" home insulation, returned this week from the annual home insulation meeting at the Drake hotel in Chicago.

One of the highlights of this meeting is the awarding of the Trailblazer award to the top ranking salesman for the entire United States and Canada.

For the second year in a row this award has again been given to Mr. Andreas of Mundelein. This is the first time in the 20 year history of blown in insulation that anyone has ever won the award twice.

Considering there are 1400 areas competing for this same award, it is a very outstanding accomplishment. In asking Mr. Andreas how he accounts for this local area leading the entire United States and Canada two years in a row, he reports

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!

Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure. When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out.

Frequent, scanty or burning passages are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.

The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Insist on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

Bits O' Business

Undaunted by the January cold wave, the nation's construction industry started 1948 with a rush by launching more new work than in any other January on record, with home builders responsible for more than half the month's volume. The country's laundries are doing the biggest business in history as part of their contribution to postwar cleanup. The produced a record $800,000,000 worth of laundering business last year. . . Dollar volume of retail sales was up 12 per cent in 1947 but business dropped off from one to nine per cent for women's wear, shoe, fur, and jewelry stores. . . Western furniture manufacturers report brisk demand for quality furniture now reaching Pacific coast retailers in quantity. Better woods and higher style designing is overcoming buyer resistance which was strong when only "scrap wood" furniture was available.

Bernie Cummins and Old Timers, two bands at dance February 21

Bernie Cummins and his orchestra will furnish the music at the Firemen's dance Saturday, February 21, at St. Mary's Training School gymnasium, River and Central rds., just north of Des Plaines.

They played four years at the Aragon and Trianon ballrooms, and the Edgewater Beach has called them back seven times. Among other Cummins-conscious hostesses might be listed Chicago's Palmer House and Bismarck and Stevens Hotels.

The band, catering to lovers of smooth, danceable music, plays a mixture of old and new melodies, rhythmic ease, a natural inducement to a "moonlight and roses" mood.

For those who prefer the Old Time type of dancing, "Homer's Melody Makers," will be on hand.

St. Mary's gymnasium offers ample room for dancing, being one of the largest buildings of its kind in this area. There will not be the crowding that existed in former years at Rand Park.

Besides the fun of the evening, the firemen are offering three very attractive door prizes—2 Zenith Portable Radios and one combination R. C. A. radio and phonograph. These prizes are now on display in the windows of Spiegel's department store, Des Plaines.

Insurance planner

William E. North, 1234 Mayfair road, Arlington Heights, was a member of an 11-man committee of insurance executives which planned and directed the fifth Annual Economic conference sponsored by the Chicago chapter of Chartered Life Underwriters at the Knickerbocker hotel last week.

700 business and professional men and educators attended the conference to hear Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers to the president, give the main address: "Who Can Underwrite Prosperity?" Co-featured with Dr. Nourse was Dr. Frank H. Sparks, noted businessman-president of Wabash college, who spoke on "Education for Business."

North is with the New York Life Insurance Company.

Martin Meyer to tour South as 'farm family of the year'

Stress alfalfa for brood sows

In spite of repeated advice to farmers that sows must be given substantial amounts of alfalfa to build healthy litters, many hog producers are failing to heed this advice, says the American Veterinary Medical Association. "Countless numbers of pigs, and inestimable profits, are being lost every year by producers who disregard the nutritional needs of their herds," this group declares.

It is suggested that throughout the gestation period the sow should receive 15 to 30 per cent of alfalfa hay or meal along with balancing amounts of ground corn and oats, plus a high-quality protein supplement. Access to good pasture also should be provided whenever possible.

Attend clinic

Chosen from this area to attend the Jamesway Ventilation school held at St. Charles, were J. H. Wainwright of White Lane Farms hatchery.

Arthur Reimes and Raymond Frost of Reimers Poultry Farm & Hatchery, Prairie View, and A. A. Paltz of Sunny Croft Hatchery, Roselle. The session included a thorough discussion of the most modern techniques and practices developed during the past several years in the practical ventilation of farm buildings. New wartime advancements were demonstrated and explained to the group of Jamesway dealers present.

Have YOU Tried a Classified?

Mr. and Mrs. Martin C. Meyer, who represent Cook county as the Farm Family of the Year, will leave early in March on a tour of the south as the guests of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture and the Gulf, Mobile and Ohio railroad. Winners of the Farm Family award in their county, they will travel on streamlined trains similar to

LAW on the FARM

Farm Partnerships — Lately there has been an increase in the use of livestock leases and father-son farming plans. Both of these arrangements are frequently referred to as "farm partnerships." In a sense they are partnerships; that is, they are joint arrangements between an owner and his tenant or son to cooperate in carrying on the farm business and to receive income from the farm proportionate to their contribution of land, equipment, livestock, feed, seed, fertilizer, machinery, labor and operating expenses. However, the general assumption is that few of these arrangements are partnerships in the legal sense. This is important because, if an owner and his tenant or son are partners, either of them may make contracts for the business, sell partnership property or create partnership debts without the consent of the other. A separate income tax return would have to be made for the partnership, and in case of death a partnership accounting would be necessary.

In 1917 the Illinois legislature enacted the Uniform Partnership Act, a standardized law now in force in many other states and Alaska. According to its provisions, a partnership is "an association of two or more persons to carry on as co-owners a business for profit." By this definition many enterprises in which the tenant or son contributes only labor would not be considered partnerships. The act further states that "joint property, common property, or part ownership does not of itself establish a partnership... the sharing of gross returns does not of itself establish a partnership, nor does the receipt of a share of the profits if it is received as... rent to a landlord."

Whether or not a partnership exists between individuals depends largely upon their intentions. A person dealing with farm owners and tenants is not bound by their intentions, however, and may judge from their actions and business setup as to whether there is a partnership.

Limed litter in poultry

Much attention is being given to the litter problem in poultry houses these days. And from an economic standpoint it's a problem that is worthy of study. Sam Ridlen, Illinois poultry extension specialist, says good litter man-

Ill. employment office takes over farm help aid

The Illinois State Employment service has resumed the responsibility for maintaining "effective placement services for agriculture and related industry employers and workers" in accordance with the Wagner Peyser act.

"Farm orders and applicants are to receive the same emphasis and attention as any other employer placing an order, or applicant applying for work," announced Cleo L. Liepitz, manager of the Illinois State Employment Service office at 5306 W. Lawrence ave.

The basic objectives of the farm placement program of the Illinois Employment Service are:

1. To provide a year-round farm placement service to agricultural workers and employers to meet the continuing needs of the industry.

2. To augment the normal supply of agricultural workers by the recruitment of other workers from within the local labor market during periods of seasonal needs.

3. To facilitate the movements of migratory workers needed to meet seasonal requirements beyond the ability of the local labor market to provide.

The seasonal nature and frequent emergencies which arise in this field of work add to the responsibility of effectively serving the farm employers and workers, and to facilitate the service, Manager Liepitz states that her staff has been supplemented by a Farm Placement representative, Jack Ure, who will be primarily responsible for farm placement and recruitment activities.

According to information now available, there should be ample workers available for farmers and truck gardeners in this area provided they will anticipate their requirements at least 30 days or more in advance in order for the I. S. E. S. to recruit the men needed.

agement saves labor, preserves the fertilizer qualities in the manure and adds to the comfort of the flock — and all of these things affect income either directly or indirectly.

Perhaps the most recent trend in litter management is to apply some chemical compound to help keep the litter dry and loose. Hydrated lime, the most popular of these chemicals, has given excellent results in controlling odors as well as in keeping the litter in a dry, loose condition.

Hydrated lime is also effective to use on the dropping boards or in pits. The usual rate is about 1½ pounds per day per one hundred birds.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. When a hostess gives a dinner party in a restaurant, is it all right for her guests to add to her tip before leaving the table?

A. This would be extremely belittling to the hostess and would give the impression that her guests considered her tip as insufficient.

Q. Is it all right for a business man to use his business letterheads when he writes his social letters at his office?

A. No; he should keep a box of correspondence stationery in his desk for this purpose.

Q. What is the correct way to eat a peach at the table?

A. A small silver knife should be provided, the peach cut into quarters, and conveyed to the mouth with the fingers.

Q. The only good piece of jewelry I have is my platinum diamond-set wedding ring. Is it necessary for me to discard this, inasmuch as I have just been divorced?

A. No, you may go on wearing this. It is the one kind of ring that you can wear without question.

Q. What apology should a person offer if he accidentally brushes against another person on the street, or in some public conveyance?

A. "I am sorry" is sufficient.

Q. When is the proper time for the host to take his seat at the dinner table?

A. The host should always be the last one to take his seat.

Q. Is a host or hostess ever justified in abruptly changing the subject of conversation among guests?

A. Yes, when an argument seems imminent, or it is evident that the subject is extremely distasteful to any of the guests.

Q. How long after the death of a friend should one send a card of condolence to the family?

A. Wait at least a week before mailing the card or letter of sympathy.

Q. When a guest is staying overnight, whose place is it to suggest retiring, the guest or the hostess?

A. The hostess has this privilege.

Q. When one is the recipient of a gift from a group of persons, is it necessary to write a note of thanks to each one?

A. No; only one note of thanks to the group is necessary.

Q. When a young man takes a girl to the theater, should she stand in line beside him while he purchases the tickets?

A. No. She should stand aside and wait for him.

March 15 Tax Quiz

by JOHN T. JARECKI, Collector of Internal Revenue.

Editor's note: This is the fourth of a series of ten brief articles explaining, in question and answer form, how to fill out your Federal income tax return.

Q. Who must use Form 1040 as a "long form" return? A. Anyone with income of $5,000 or more, and anyone with income under $5,000 who claims personal deductions of more than approximately 10 per cent of income.

Q. Must persons with income of $5,000 or over itemize deductions? A. No, not unless they want to claim more than a flat allowance of $500.

Q. When husband and wife file separate returns, can one take the standard deduction while the other itemizes deductions? A. No, they must adopt the same method unless they are legally separated and not living together.

Q. My list of deductions is too long for the allotted space of Page 3. What do I do? A. List all deductions on a separate piece of paper, write the total on Page 3, and attach the list securely to your Form 1040.

Q. What exemptions am I entitled to on my 1947 tax? A. You are entitled to an exemption of $500 for yourself, $500 for your wife under certain conditions and $500 for each dependent.

Q. How do I take credit for exemptions on my return? A. You list the exemptions as called for by the form. The tax table on Form 1040, Page 4, makes automatic allowance for your exemptions when you file your Withholding Statement on a "short form." If you file Form 1040 as a "long form," you write the total amount of your exemptions on Line 4 of Page 3.

Q. When can a husband claim an exemption for his wife (or wife for her husband)? A. If they make a joint return, or if she had no income and was not the dependent of another taxpayer (her father, for example). If husband and wife file separate returns, each must claim his own exemption.

Gems of Thought

SAFETY

The desire for safety stands against every great and noble enterprise.

—Tacitus

I know that the Lord is always on the side of the right, but it is my constant anxiety and prayer that I and this nation should be on the Lord's side.

—Abraham Lincoln

Every one wishes to have truth on his side, but it is not every one that sincerely wishes to be on the side of truth.

—Whately

A man who puts aside his religion because he is going into society, is like one taking off his shoes because he is about to walk upon thorns.

—Cecil

Understanding the control which Love held over all, Daniel felt safe in the lions' den, and Paul proved the viper to be harmless.
